JUDGMENT

Heard.

2. If the petitioner makes appropriate representation to the first respondent, necessary follow up action shall be taken on Ext.P2 in accordance with law and if it is found that the petitioner has a lawful grievance which could be solved within the statutory and executive authority of the first respondent, appropriate action shall be taken and necessary final decision taken after hearing the necessary parties. It is also directed that if the first respondent apprehends any problem, he will ensure that there is no loss to life and property. All the above shall be done untrammelled by anything stated in this judgment.

The writ petition is disposed of in the above terms.

THOTTATHIL B. RADHAKRISHNAN,
JUDGE.
